An Explanation.

Mr. McKINLEY, rising to an explanation, said that his remarks on the Chinese resolution last week had been misreported in the Pittsburgh papers. He didn't say that "the Chinese were as good as the Irish;" that he couldn't have said so, as he didn't believe it then, and didn't believe it now, and never could believe it. He had never said it on the floor of the Senate or elsewhere.

HOUSE.

The Grocers' Bill.

The Grocers' bill, with an amendment by Mr. MAHON that the bill would only apply when the parties waived the exemption, was called up.

Mr. RAMSEY said that his motives were misrepresented. He (Ramsey) denounced the charge that he was prompted by any improper motives in the passage of the bill as false.

Terrible Tragedy Near Bardstown—A Family Feud.

LOUISVILLE, March 24.—A terrible tragedy occurred near Bardstown last Saturday. G. W. Holtshauser, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens, was sitting in his office about half-past seven o'clock in the evening, with an unmarried son, D. W. Holtshauser, when a married son, J. Holtshauser, entered the door, and without speaking pulled out a navy revolver and shot his brother, the ball entering the left breast and lodging under the shoulder blade. The wounded young man rose from his chair, and as he did so received another shot, entering near the shoulder, when he fell forward, receiving a third shot in the crown of the head, the ball lodging under the right eye. The fratricide immediately left the premises and has not been heard from since. The cause of the murder is supposed to be a feud of several months' standing. All parties have been held in high esteem, and great excitement is caused in the community by the tragic affair. The father and mother of the young men are near seventy-five years of age and the grief of the venerable people is heartrending.

THE NASBY LETTERS.

Mr. Nasby Goes to Washington and from thence to North Easton, the Home of Oakes Ames.

His Account of the Banquet in Honor of Mr. Ames.

[From the Toledo Blade.]

NORTH EASTON, (wich is in the State uv Massychoosits,) March 14, 1873.

The Credit Mobiler bizniss so excited me that I coodent stay in the quiet and classic shades uv the corners, while it wuz goin on. "Where the carrion is there will the buzzard be also." In the Credit Mobiler I smelt carrion—to whom I alood as to buzzard it is not necessary to specify. I went to Washington.

The state uv things at the Capital surprised me. I spozed that I shood find suthin thet I cood turn to account in assistin in kiverin up this swindle, the same ez I yoosed to do in the good old days uv Bookanan, but I wuz disappinted. The Republikin members refoosed any concealment and insisted on committees and sich. When the plague wuz ragin in London the dead carts wood draw up afore the houses and driver wood howl, "bring out yer dead." When Credit Mobiler raged in Washington, the people yelled to Congress, "bring out yer dead." Hed it bin a Dimocratic Congress, we wood hev gone to the door and swore that we hed no dead, but not so with the present one. "Bring out yer dead!" shouted the people. "Here are the corpses!" sed Congress, cheerfully, and these wuz then laid out on coolin boards and ready to be sent home for burial.

It wuz a most unprecedented proceedin. In the old times ef a Democrat devoted to Sunday Skools and temprance, hed bin innocently led by a plottin skeemer to accept stock in a Credit Mobiler the skeemer carrying the stock till the dividends shood pay for it, and so on,—and charges hed bin brot agin him, wat wood hev happened? He wood hev riz, and, pintin calmly to his Sunday Skools and temprance, wood hev indignantly asked ef a life devoted to Sunday Skools and temprance wuz to be blasted on the mere assertion uv a plottin skeemer who hed not devoted his life to Sunday Skools and temprance? And the Democratic House wood hev voted him clear and hev expelled the accuser, and each member wood hev tripped gaily to draw the dividends on the stock wich he held.

I hed a curiosity to see how the constitooents uv the great Ames wood receive him, and I hed an opportoonity to gratify that curiosity. Mr. Ames sejested to me that I shood go, and he slipped suthin into my hand. I fell into his trap the same ez the placid Colfax did, and sed I wood go.

"Ef my people insist on given me a recepshun," sed he, "see to it that it is spontaneous. I hev a conservatory wich it may be worth your while to see—ef they want flowers to decorate the tables—but enuff. Speeches will be necessary, and we must hev em, but see that yoo select men who will do it spontaneously. Were I a hard man I cood make it uncomfortable for the honest free men in North Easton who shood refoose to cheer at the proper time, but— I will say no more. My family doctor makes a good speech, and the school teacher is a poet. I have heard that he hez hed an idea uv writin a poem in wich I am to be crowned with laurels, and the ages do homage to me, and possibly he mite hev it done to read at this resepshin—but uv course it ain't for me to say. My factry will turn out strong, uv course. But go and visit North Easton."

I did so. Mr. Ames hez a factry at North Easton wich makes shovels. The physician doctors sick shovel makers, and insists on bringin into the world embryo shovel makers; the storekeeper sells goods to shovel makers; the teacher teaches young shovel makers; the shoe maker and tailor labor for shovel makers, and the preacher preaches to shovel makers. Mr. Ames is the boss shovel maker—he is the sum uv this system. Ef he hed bustid in this Credit Mobiler, the factry wood hev bin closed, North Easton wood hev vanished into thin air, and a few years hence all that the curous traveler wood find wood be the last shovel maker—a gray-haired man, sittin on the rooins uv the biler-arch, starin about in a wild, vacant way.

Mr. Ames owns this shovel factory in North Easton, and North Easton beleeves Mr. Ames to be honest. They reject with intense scorn the idea that he ever did anything wrong, or that he could do anything wrong. So the next day after my arrival, and after I had interviewed the leadin citizens, a public recepshun was tendered Mr. Ames—a spontaneous recepshun on the part uv the people uv wich Mr. Ames wuz kept in profound ignorance, and I wus requested to direct it.

I sejested then that it be held in the skool house, (wich Mr. Ames built), and that the music be furnished by the North Easton band, (wich Mr. Ames equipped.) It wuz deemed necessary to give the proceedins a religious cast, so I requested the pastor uv the church wich Mr. Ames attends to ask the blessin. The family physician uv the great and good Mr. Ames wuz set down to preside and prepose his health, and the general Committee uv Arrangements wuz made up from the store keepers who do business in Mr. Ames' store. The clerks and book-keepers in Mr. Ames, factory were distributed along the tables at regler intervals to prodoose spontaneous applause at sich times ez I shood indicate.

Here trouble set in. The family physician hed relatives away from North Easton, and he didn't like to do it.

"Prepare your speech!" sed I peremptorily.

"Must I say," sed this wretched man, pale with anxiety, "must I say that Mr. Ames is an honest man, wich is the noblest work uv God, (wich I beleeve it is the noblest work, there is so little uv it,) and likewise that he is gold wich hez passed through the croocible, and come out purer and brighter. Heaven! must I? Is there no escape!"

"Must yoo? My friend, I shood say so. This spontaneous gatherin must take place. Ef yoo refoose do you know wat will happen to you? Another physician will prescribe the nimble cathartic and the energetic emetic—another's calomel will wrench the bowels uv North Easton and make bizness for the undertaker. By the way, ef the undertaker hez an interest in your continyooance here, he ought to do half the speech makin."

The frame uv mind uv this physician may be inferred from the act that he didn't see the sarcasm uv this remark. But it coodent hev bin expected.

"An honest man is the noblest work uv God, and gold from the croocible," groaned he. "Is there other impromptu remarks that I must make?"

"None. These are the regiars and will anser. But don't be cast down my friend. It iz only for a minit, and after yoo hev done sich things a few times yoo won't notis it. Be uv good cheer."

The night came. The skool-house wuz illoominated—the tables wuz ornamented with flowers; the Ames were grouped, the clergyman offered up his little prayer, and the eatin wended. At its conclooshn the Doctor rose, and addressin the great and good Ames, remarked that his friends and neighbors hed met that they mite extend to him the hand uv welcome—that they met ez friends and neighbors, to show him that they hed the most perfect confidence in his honesty and integrity, and that while wicked men hed endeavored to blast his fair name, North Easton hed allus looked upon him ez an honest man, wich wuz the noblest work uv God—("Hear! hear!" from the Superintendent uv the east shop, and three cheers proposed by the second book-keeper in the factory.) But ez there wuz others wich hed more flooency present, he wood close by proposing ez a sentiment, "Hon. Oakes Ames, like gold from the croocible, he ez passed the fiery ordeal, and comes out purer and brighter than ever."

The Doctor sat down the most depressed man I ever saw. But he hed done all thet we expected uv him. He hed got in both quotashen, and his speech, ez he spoke it, didn't vary materially, from the slips wich hed been printed the day afore the banquet for the press.

Our guest replied, thankin them for the spontaneous triboot, wich wuz the more gratifyin becoz it wuz spontaneous and unsought. He wuz strong in the conscieusness uv rectitood. True, he hed sold stock to members uv Congress for less than it wuz worth, but wuz that bribery? He trust ed his vindicashen to his friends and neighbors.

Other speeches wuz made. The defamers uv the great and good man were denounced ez perjured villains, and the buildin uv all the public works uv the country from the Erie canal to date, wuz ascribed to his ability, by the enthusiastic agents uv the factry. So complimentary were these speeches that I, myself, got to feelin that in the articles uv Roman integrity and truth and sich, the late G. Washington wuz a thief beside Mr. Ames. One enthoosiastic man, the principal of Mr. Ames' skool, read a poem uv his own, in wich he hed Mr. Ames bein crowned with laurels and fucher ages doin homage to him, wich wuz an exceedin wrenched effort for a man on so a small a salary. But he knows how to make his situation permanent.

At 11 P. M. this spontaneous recepshun wuz over. The servants uv the great and good Ames carefully gathered up the dishes and spoons and sich and took em back to the Ames mansion—the fragments wuz collected in large baskets for the great and good man's pigs and poultry—for the great man is thrifty, and wont waste nothin—he distributed the flowers among the ladies, and North Easton retired to its virchuous couch. The recepshun wuz a success, and it didn't cost the great Ames to exceed $500, inclooding my charges for arrangin it.

I think seriously of movin to North Easton. I kin make a better speech than the doctor—a better prayer than the minister, and kin sing a better poem than the skool master. But if I shood hev many sich occashens for sich services, I shood want better pay than any uv em git. I kin afford to risk that, however. The great and good Ames knows talent, and I know the great and good Ames. I shel pitch my tent in North Easton ef possible.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY,

FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

EXTRA SESSION.

WASHINGTON, March 24, 1873.

SENATE.

Resignation of Senator Caldwell.

The Vice President laid before the Senate the following letter:

Washington, March 24, 1873.—Hon. Henry Wilson, Vice President of the United States—Sir: I do hereby very respectfully notify you, and through you the Senate of the United States, that I have resigned and do resign my seat in that body as a Senator from the State of Kansas, and that I have forwarded by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the chief executive officer of that State, at Topeka, Ks., a resignation in the following form, to wit:

"United States Senate Chamber, March 24, 1873.—His Excellency, the Governor of Kansas, Topeka, Kansas—Sir: I hereby respectfully tender you my resignation as a Senator of the United States from the State of Kansas, to take effect immediately.

"Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
"ALEXANDER CALDWELL."

I have also delivered in person to Hon. Thos. A. Osborne, Governor of Kansas, now in this city, a duplicate of the paper forwarded, whose acknowledgment of the receipt thereof is herewith enclosed.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
[Signed] ALEXANDER CALDWELL.

"Willard's Hotel, Washington March 24, 1873.—To Hon. A. Caldwell, Washington, D. C.—Sir: I hereby acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this day resigning your seat in the Senate of the United States as a Senator from the State of Kansas.

"Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
"THOMAS A. OSBORNE,
"Governor of Kansas."

Mr. WRIGHT inquired whether Mr. Morton proposed to take any further steps.

Mr. MORTON replied that it was not competent to expel a man not a Senator or declare a seat vacant, therefore he considered his duties as Chairman of the Committee on Elections at an end.

Mr. FENTON said he had a speech to make on the Caldwell case, but it would not be pertinent to do so.

Senator Clayton's Case.

Mr. WRIGHT moved that Clayton's case be taken up.

Mr. THURMAN said he had never found time to read the testimony.

Mr. CLAYTON remarked that it was due to himself and to the State which he represented, or misrepresented, that his case be now acted on. The Legislature was now in session, and he appealed to all Senators who wished to deal justly in all things to now proceed to the consideration of the subject.

After further discussion the Senate decided to take up the Clayton case—yeas 35, nays 14.

The resolution before the Senate was as follows:

Resolved, That the charges made and referred to a select committee of the last Congress affecting the official character and conduct of Powell Clayton are not sustained.

Mr. WRIGHT said that he, after consultation with other members of the committee, had come to the conclusion that the subject should go over to-day, as the Senate did not now seem prepared for its discussion, but would be to-morrow.

The report of the committee in the case was read. No further action was taken.

Congressional Record of the Executive Session.

Mr. ANTHONY submitted the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That there be printed and bound, with an index, to be prepared under the direction of the Committee on Printing, the Congressional Record for the present executive session of the Senate, ten copies for each Senator, the Vice President and Secretary of the Senate, five copies for each member of the House, two copies for each executive department, five copies each for the Libraries of Congress, of the Senate and of the House, and three hundred copies to be sold by the Congressional printer at the cost of the press work, paper and binding.

Protecting the Postal Service from Railway Monopolies.

Mr. WINDOM submitted the following, which was laid over:

Resolved, That the select committee on transportation routes to the seaboard be directed to inquire and report to the Senate, at its next session, as to the nature and extent of the obligations subsisting between the railroad companies and the postal service of the country, and whether any, and what, additional legislation is necessary to guard the postal service against interruption or injury by hostile action on the part of one or all of said railroad companies.

Emancipation in Porto Rico.

Mr. MORTON offered the following resolution, which was read and ordered printed:

Resolved, That the Senate of the United States has received with joy the intelligence that the Republican Government of Spain has abolished slavery in the island of Porto Rico and raised the colored people of that island from the condition of slaves to the rights and privileges of citizens of the Spanish Republic.

Resolved, That by this act the people of Spain have given a new assurance to the world that in establishing republican institutions they are actuated by a genuine love of liberty, and sincere regard for the natural rights of all men, and that it will be accepted as an omen of power and perpetuity of the Spanish Republic.

The Senate went into executive session, and afterwards adjourned.

A Fiend in Human Shape.

GEORGETOWN, DEL., March 24.—This morning while a daughter of John Leak, a respectable gentleman living near Kehoboth Station, was returning from the house of her uncle, she was accosted by a negro named Joseph Green, or Burton, who tore off her clothes and violated her person. After the assault Burton fled, and the girl, who is only fifteen years old, managed to reach her father's residence, where she made known the facts. Burton was surrounded in the woods and captured about two miles from the place where he committed the outrage, and the prisoner, in the custody of the officers, reached this place this evening, and was lodged in jail to await trial, in April. He is a hardened criminal, and makes light of his offense.

The War with the Modocs.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—Rev. E. S. Thomas, the newly appointed Modoc Peace Commissioner, has gone to Van Bremer's. Captain Jack sent a squaw to the Klamath Indians, asking them to join him. Jack said as soon as the grass grows, he will leave the Lava Bed, burn the ranches and kill the settlers. This movement creates fears of trouble. The Indians of the lower Klamath river are quite a formidable tribe. No new movement of the troops is reported beyond the arrival of recruits. Captain Carlot, of Oregon, has gone to Warm Springs to organize famous Indian scouts and volunteers against the Modocs.

Hanging "Played Out."

The widow, mother and sister of J. H. Cunningham, murdered by Charles O'Brien last summer, appeared before the Attorney General to-day, and earnestly protested against the proposed commutation of the murderer to imprisonment until pardoned. The murder was entirely unprovoked and atrocious beyond description, but as the murderer is backed by Mrs General Sherman and General Butler, the entreaties of the murdered man's relatives will not be heeded for one instant. Hanging is indeed "played out" in Washington if the murderer has influential friends. O'Brien, with several other murderers, attempted to break jail last night.

The Currency Increased.

Secretary Richardson increased the currency to-day $528,000 by re-issuing that amount of legal tenders retired by Secretary McCulloch.

Caldwell's Probable Successor.

Ex Senator Pomeroy's friends are sanguine that he will get the seat vacated to-day by the resignation of Senator Caldwell.

A Patent Extension Contest.

One of Chambers Bros. & Co's paper folding machines was received at the Patent Office yesterday, and it is the subject of a lively contest. The patentees, a Philadelphia firm, apply for an extension of the patent, issued to them on the fifth of April, 1859, and which expires on the fifth of next month. The machine is used by all the principal book-binderies in the United States. The examiner has rendered a favorable opinion upon the application, from which the Messrs. R. Hoe & Co., of New York, by their counsel, appeal to the commissioner, before whom the case will be argued next Monday.

The Civil Service Rules to be Generally Extended.

The application of the rules of the Civil Service, although not general throughout the country, has been sufficiently tested as far as its practicability is concerned, as to warrant the Government in commencing official notification of all offices not now working under the Civil Service rules, to commence doing so immediately after such notification.

The next group to be officially notified that they must act under these rules is the Custom Houses, the principal one—that of New York—having satisfied the Government that Civil Service operations in it have proved beneficial to the public service.

Hon. John H. Mitchell of Oregon was born in Washington county, Penn., June 22, 1835. He received a public school education and instructions by private tutors. He studied law and in 1857 was admitted to the bar of Pennsylvania.

In 1860 he went to California and in July of the same year to Portland, Oregon, where he has resided ever since, and engaged in the active practice of his profession as a lawyer.

In June 1871, he was elected City Attorney of the city of Rutland and served the full term, one year.

In June, 1862, he was elected to the State Senate for four years; the first two he served as chairman of the Judiciary Committee, and the last two as President of the Senate.

In 1866 he was a prominent Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate, but was defeated by one vote only.

In 1867 he was chosen Professor of Medical Jurisprudence in the Medical Department of Wilmouth University at Salem, Oregon, in which capacity he served four years, when he resigned on account of the press of his professional business.

In 1865 he was commissioned by the Governor of Oregon, Lieutenant Colonel of the Oregon Militia. For the past five years he has been acting as attorney for the Oregon & California Railroad Company, at a salary of $10,000 per year in gold. He was a Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate before the Oregon Legislature in September last. The Legislature was composed of forty-three Republicans and twenty-eight Democrats. He received the caucus nomination on the first ballot, receiving twenty-eight votes out of the thirty-five that went into caucus, eight Republicans refusing to go into caucus, and sought to form a coalition with the Democrats. The caucus nomination was made unanimous by the thirty-five who went into caucus (one less than enough to elect), and on September 28, 1872, he was elected, receiving forty-one Republican votes; fourteen Democrats voted for his competitor, Mr. Corbett, two Republicans voted blank, and the remaining Democrats were scattering.

A Quaker Advertising Dodge.

A Philadelphian writes to the Postoffice Department, proposing to pay the postage on all unstamped mail matter, if the department will allow him to place upon the letters, &c., thus stamped, his business card. The department is of opinion there can be no objection to his paying for the stamps required in forwarding such matter, but that there is no reason why he should be permitted to do his advertising in that way.

The Movement to Collect Payment of Greenbacks in Specie.

The rumor was current among Treasury officials and in other quarters on Saturday, that the efforts of Wallace P. Groom to compel the Government to redeem its greenbacks, series of 1862, in specie, was a movement gotten up to hinder and embarass the syndicate in its operations. The case once being before the Courts, it is alleged subscriptions to the loan would diminish until the matter was settled.

Secretary Richardson, however, stated to your correspondent on Saturday that Groom's only object was to obtain notoriety.

Threatened Resignations Not Forthcoming.

While the present Chief Clerk of the Treasury, Mr. Saville, was an aspirant for the Assistant Secretaryship, several of the prominent clerks, when his chances grew dim, threatened to tender their resignations unless Mr. Saville was appointed. Since his failure not one of them has resigned.

A Law to Build a Jail Without Money.

General Coburn, in drawing up his bill for the establishment of a military prison, which passed last Congress, left out the most essential part of it—that of providing for an appropriation to carry it out. The bill, therefore, is of no practical effect.

General Mosby.

The rebel General Mosby, of guerrilla notoriety, called to pay his respects to the Attorney General on Saturday. He stated that he still held to his determination not to accept office under President Grant where it could be said that it was tendered as a reward for party service.

New Revenue Stamps.

Under the new law, the Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing has just completed designs on which to print special Internal Revenue tax stamps. The distinguishing feature of that for dealers in malt liquors is a neat engraving of the capitol building, and that for manufacturers of cigars and tobacco, the Goddess of Liberty, seated at the end of a hogshead of tobacco, with her arm embracing a cigar box, and in the background appears the sun-burst.

Treasury Regulation to be Enforced.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued and directed a rigid enforcement of the regulation which requires the Treasurer, all Assistant treasurers and depositaries of the United States to refuse payment of all official checks of United States disbursing officers if presented more than four months after their issue, and all Treasury drafts and disbursing officers' checks presented more than three years after their issue. All checks payment on which has thus been refused will have to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury, the former for examination and [illegible] with the drawer's accounts, and the latter for a statement of new accounts.

SPAIN.

The Porto Rico Emancipation.

MADRID, March 24.—The bill abolishing slavery in Porto Rico provides that the abolition shall follow immediately upon the promulgation of its passage. The emancipated slaves will, however, be obliged to serve three years with their present masters or other residents on the island, and will enjoy the political rights of Spanish citizens after five years have elapsed. The indemnity to be paid to the slave owners is to be charged exclusively to the account of the Porto Rico budget.

Soon after the adoption of the abolition bill the dissolution of the Cortes was unanimously voted, and the House broke up amidst great excitement in the building. On the streets there was no disorder, and the city is completely tranquil.

Foreign Political Agitators.

MADRID, March 24.—The Imparcial says a number of foreigners arrived here with the view of agitating the overthrow of the municipality of Madrid and establishing a commune in its place.

Insubordination in the Army.

MADRID, March 24.—The attempted demonstrations on Saturday and Sunday were failures, and the city to-day is tranquil. Insubordination has made its appearance among the troops in Tarragona, and the Carlists are increasing in numbers in that province.

The Epoca says Senor Figueras has returned from Barcelona, discouraged. He fears that discipline cannot be restored in the army there.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Geneva Award.

LONDON, March 24.—In the House of Commons to-day Gladstone, in reply to an inquiry of Vernon Harcourt, stated that the Government did not intend at present, or with reference to the finances of the present year, to propose a vote of supply for the sum awarded at Geneva, as the financial year would end on the 31st of the present month.

ATTENTION CAPITALISTS! FOR A PERMANENT PAYING INVESTMENT SUBSCRIBE TO THE CAPITAL STOCK OF THE U. S. Iron and Tin Plate Co., Chartered by the State of Pennsylvania. Capital Stock $400,000. Shares $100 Each.

Tinners, capitalists and all persons seeking a SAFE INVESTMENT for surplus means, are invited to investigate the present status of this company, and the tangible and undisputed basis upon which its Board of Directors assume that the stock will pay a dividend of 40 PER CENT. annually!

Not a box of tin or terne plate has ever been made in the United States, while 75 per cent. of all the plates made in England are imported to this country. In 1872, 2,366,684 boxes of tin plates were imported; and for two weeks of 1873, ending Jan. 25, there were imported 17,181 boxes.

A Birmingham (England) paper says: "Of our total shipments of tin plates the United States absorbs nearly 75 per cent.—the quantity last year showing a trifling increase compared with 1871. We understand that this manufacture is now being undertaken in America, and some of the trade will, therefore, be lost to us."

The company has purchased land for the works near McKeesport, Pa., on the Monongahela river, and in the heart of the coal and coke region, and will have railroad and river transportation to all parts of the country; also, the letters patent of Wm. O. Davies for coating plates, which patent gives this company 25 per cent. advantage over any competing manufactory of tin plate that may be established.

Stock books are now open at the Wylie Avenue Savings Bank, and "Iron World" office, Pittsburgh; and Allegheny Homestead Bank, 244 Beaver avenue, Allegheny City.

WE HEAR it said that a considerable number of members of Congress-elect were in Washington when the increase of salary bill was pending, and that some of them were from this vicinity. Can it be so? Worst of all, they lobbied for the bill.

THE LATEST phase of the Modoc troubles represents them as temporizing, waiting for the snows to melt, so they may escape in small bands, to the mountains. They show a decided repugnance to being removed, they know not where,—to new homes.

THE Solicitor of the Treasury at Washington is preparing the necessary papers for the prosecution of a large number of suits by the Government against violators of the Customs laws, during the April term of the United States District Court of New York.

THE new Internal Revenue law regulating the collection of taxes, providing for the removal of Assessors and furnishing manufacturers with stamps direct, will go into operation as soon as the stamps are printed. The appointments of Collectors have all been completed.

THE Tennessee Legislature has just passed a stringent law in regard to drinking houses. It has the local option feature of the law in this State—forbidding the sale of liquors in any city or county unless a majority of the qualified voters of such district vote in favor of authorizing such sales by license.

IT IS SAID that the Southern delegation who were urging the President to have the South represented in his Cabinet, are satisfied with the appointment of ex-Senator Sawyer as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, believing that is the best they can get, now that the President appears determined not to make any changes in his Cabinet.

THE British and American Mixed Claims Commission are in session every day in Washington, and although some few claims are rejected, the majority are acted upon favorably. It will probably be necessary to hold a Summer session, as it is thought all the claims before it cannot be acted upon before the first of October, the time fixed by law for the expiration of the powers of the Commission.

SENATOR CALDWELL has succumbed to the pressure of the investigation into the alleged corruption used to achieve his election to the United States Senate from Kansas, and has sent his resignation to the Governor, to take effect immediately. The investigation into the case has therefore closed, the chairman of the Committee on Elections holding that it is not competent to expel a man not a Senator, or declare his seat vacant.

IT seems entirely probable that the principal in the great forgeries on the Bank of England is secured, and will be taken to England for trial, Inspector Webb having arrived with extradition papers. The swindler proves to have been in the same line before, he having unsuccessfully attempted to defraud Jay Cooke & Co., several years since. He will probably receive such a dose of English justice, should the charges pending be proven, as will effectually settle all proclivities in the swindling direction for years to come.

THE New Jersey Legislature has finally enacted the General Railroad law, the bill having been so amended in the Senate as to meet the views of all parties. It is supposed that this will permit the building of the Air Line road, as the Senate Committee, to which the bill was referred, was favorable to the new road. But the fact that it received a unanimous vote in the Senate, points to a possible combination wherein the Pennsylvania railroad may yet obtain the upper hand. The combinations in railroads and politics are something wonderful.

SATURDAY'S Daily Graphic contains a series of seven pictures illustrative of the closing events of the execution of Foster in New York. They embrace a portrait of the condemned man, a sketch of the car hook tragedy, the last parting of Foster and his wife, the clergyman ministering to his charge before the final hour, the bound and bowed felon emerging from his cell on his march to the gallows, and the warning figure of a murderer swinging between earth and sky, dead and dishonored. The illustrations in the Graphic, as a whole, are improving vastly and the print is unexceptional.

THE PROPOSAL to establish an Insurance Department at Harrisburg has already been favorably referred to in these columns. We are pleased to notice that the bill will probably become a law. It will lead to a careful supervision of all companies doing business in this State, and will serve to protect the people against wrong. In other States great advantages have been derived from such a department, and it is but proper that we should watch over the interests of the people, so far as this department of business is concerned, in a State having so much wealth and population as is here. We earnestly hope the bill will become a law, and that a perfectly competent person may be appointed to preside over the new department.

AS IS USUALLY the case, the recent executions for murder have started into fresh life the question of the abolition of capital punishment, and it will probably go the dreary round again. New York ought to have illustrated the various phases of this question sufficiently by this time, for it to be dismissed. For a long time hanging for murder was practically "played out," in New York,—as one of her murderers, forcibly, but not very elegantly, expressed it—and the increase of crime was fearful. For awhile past, it has been believed that the death penalty would be rigidly enforced, and there has been a decrease in the number of murders. To our mind the relation between cause and effect is very plainly marked in these cases, and the argument to be derived is strongly in favor of capital punishment.

JOHN SMITH lives in Ohio. Being a member of the Legislature, and realizing that this is the era of sumptuary legislation, he has concluded that there are enough John Smiths in Ohio, and so has introduced a bill in the Legislature forbidding all persons who sport the name of Smith, and who may hereafter have son born unto them, to name any one of them John. As a variety in legislation, we are half disposed to commend this proposed law. It is evident that this John Smith takes a pride in his name. He does not substitute the initial "J." for honest John, nor elaborate simple Smith into stately Smythe. Rather he proposes to elevate the dignity of the name by limiting its frequent and regular use. True, his bill may be presumed to infringe the freedom of such American citizens as may indulge the name of Smith, but as special legislation is designed to benefit the person projecting it, and as John Smith has developed the idea of limiting the number of John Smiths by law, certainly he ought to be privileged in this case. We are not entirely certain that the idea is not sufficiently original to be patented. Think of a patent on the name of John Smith!

THE Government is earnestly pressing the New York Central Railroad Company for certain taxes, claimed several years since. Some years ago, this Company declared what is called a scrip dividend of some eighty per cent. on its capital stock. The Government claimed taxes on it, but the Company resisted, urging that it was really an increase of capital stock, and not a dividend, in the usual sense of that term. It was really, we judge, what is termed a "watering" of the stock. That is, the earnings of the railroad were sufficient to pay more than a legal dividend. Hence, in order to provide against the law, a scrip dividend was issued. This scrip now draws a dividend, the same as the regular stock of the Company. Technically, however, it is a dividend, and on it the Government claimed taxes. The case has been argued, again and again, and now the Government is selling locomotives, station houses, depots, and the like. It looks like a slow process, but will bring the money—about half a million of dollars—in time.

THE SPANISH REPUBLIC.

In estimating the work of the Spanish Republic, whether its life be long or short, it must be credited with having decreed the abolition of slavery in Porto Rico. The monarchial governments of Isabella and Amadeus were content to dally with this question, but declined to take positive action, or to do anything finally. The young republic is struggling for an existence, and it is not entirely clear whether it will stand or fall; but it determines to be consistent with itself. Professing liberty, it imparts freedom, and the slaves, in one of the most important colonies of Spain, are declared to be free. By this action about thirty thousand slaves are freed and invested with all the rights and privileges of citizens of Spain. The vote conferring these privileges was unanimous and enthusiastic. There is so much of candor and wisdom in every move made by the new government in Spain that we cannot forbear the opinion, that despite the tacit unfriendliness of the great continental powers, and the active hostility of the Carlist pretender, the republic is destined to stand. If it can bear up against opposing influences, till its various elements of policy are fully developed, we are persuaded it will gain the adherence and affection of the Spanish people. It ought to cost greatly less than the monarchy, thereby relieving the overburdened people of Spain of a measure of taxation. It cannot strike against the prejudices of the people, as it is under the control of Spaniards, and is a national movement in all respects. The weakness of the Amadeus Government centered in the fact that he being an Italian, was an offence to Spanish pride. The Republic is officered by Spaniards, and aims to represent the loftiest traits of Spanish loyalty and aspiration. Heretofore, the people have been oppressed with taxes, burdened with officials who commanded neither respect nor affection, and were not protected against rapacious bandits nor allowed arms to defend themselves. Now they have a better class of officials, and are armed, while their desire for liberty is gratified. With all this, and the development of a consistent policy, as shown in the Porto Rico liberation, the Republic ought to be a success.

OUR HARRISBURG DELEGATION.

We have not hesitated to criticise our members in the Legislature, when there seemed to be occasion for it, and we are equally ready to defend them, where they are in the right, but surrounded with difficulties which impair their freedom of action. Naturally a member desires to oblige his constituents, and will often go, as we have reason to know, to the farthest possible limit to do so. We are recently informed, however, that this fact is often abused,—perhaps ignorantly,—by constituents who have bills which infract some of the rules of legislation, and yet who earnestly and sometimes threateningly insist on their passage. This places a member in a disagreeable position. He knows that there are certain forms of special legislation that cannot be availed of this winter. Governor Hartranft has shut down so imperatively, that it is simply useless for the Legislature to pass such bills. This has not been the case heretofore. Hence, while bills sent are offered, and even read in place, no Senator or member with any self respect is willing to urge the passage of a bill it would be sheer folly to pass. Many have taken the position that while they will treat bills with respect, they will not stultify themselves in attempting to do what cannot be done. The people should feel that it is exceedingly unfair to urge their members in this particular when it can do no possible good, and only serves to embarrass and perplex. It may be fairly said of the Allegheny county delegation, both in the Senate and House, that they earnestly desire to gratify their constituents so far as they possibly can, and that they are active and attentive to all their duties. Some of them have had long experience in legislation, and may be trusted as knowing what can be done for their constituents and what can not be done. When they have done their duty, in introducing a bill, it is simply unfair that they should be crowded toward what they cannot accomplish, by urgent personal appeal, or strong, urgent letters. We wish to remind those interested that certain kinds of special legislation cannot be obtained this session, and there is no use in seeking it. If the members can be driven to have it pass, the Governor will veto. Then why harass your members, when no good can come of it?

THE STATE APPROPRIATIONS.

ALLEGHENY, March 22, 1873.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

The friends of the Western University—over 2,000 of whom lately petitioned the Legislature for an appropriation for that institution—the Western Pennsylvania Hospital, the Twelfth ward Hospital, the Sheltering Arms, in Pittsburgh, and the Homeopathic Hospital—will expect to hear from the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance—the Honorable James L. Graham—and learn the reason why Allegheny County has been so palpably snubbed by his committee and the Senate.

Whilst these bodies favored and passed appropriations of several hundred thousand dollars for the institutions of Philadelphia, they cannot find it in the line of their duty, to give the required aid to the more philanthropic and meritorious institutions of our own county. Why is this? Will our Senator explain?

The tax-payers of this city desire to know the reason why Allegheny county's institutions have in some instances been slightingly and stingily provided for, in others been cut off from State aid wholly, while those of no greater merit in Philadelphia have been cared for with prodigal liberality. Can our Senator, the Chairman of the Finance Committee, tell us? Has he done his whole duty in this matter of appropriations; or has he permitted the blandishments of his metropolitan, and therefore politically powerful friends, to overcome his judgment, disappoint his friends, and set the seal of unworthiness on nearly all the educational, medical and charitable institutions of this county, so dear to the hearts of his past supporters?

We hope our Senator can give, publicly, good reasons for the disappointments he has caused many of his early and steadfast friends in this matter. We hope he has been guided by reason and not prejudice in every case, and that he will inform his constituents, who have a right to know, why our institutions were permitted to be so shabbily treated by the committee, of which he is chairman, and through it by the Senate.

All hope is not yet lost; and we call upon the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee—who will doubtless be one of the Conference Committee on the Appropriation bill—to make the stand for our home institutions, which he was expected to make in his committee, and afterwards in the Senate, to the end that justice shall be done them, and the voracious demands of Philadelphia be in a measure checked.

ALLEGHENY.

PARTIAL LEGISLATION.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

I see by your report of the Legislative proceedings on Saturday that the Senate has retained in the Appropriation bill $100,000 each for the two Philadelphia Universities, and left the Western University out in the cold. Is this not wickedly partial? Philadelphia to get what she asks for her House of Refuge, Penitentiary, two Universities, and a half or whole million for Centennial Commission, while for the West, the Hospital, Sheltering Arms and University are thrown out entirely, as the matter now stands, and the amount asked for the State Reform School, and absolutely necessary to enable it to occupy its new site, is reduced $20,000. All that is granted to the West seems to come grudgingly, while Philadelphia's demands, for whatever purpose and however extravagant, are all voted. I hope it is not too late for the Committees of Conference of the two Houses to correct this gross disparity, and insist that if aid is given to the educational institutions of Philadelphia, the University of Pittsburgh, which needs it more, shall also share in the State bounty. She has asked for it only as a participant of any funds to be given for high educational purposes. She is willing to abide the fate of others and to struggle onward and upward, all the more rapidly and vigorously with State aid, but none the less earnestly and persistently without it, if none be granted.

I sincerely hope the unfairness of the treatment of our University will be seen to, and corrected in the Conference Committees, to which the subject has been referred.

EQUITY.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

EGGS are firm; and hens positively stubborn. If they don't "shell out" soon, a sore neck may be the penalty.

A JEFFERSON county farmer reports that there are thousands of lively grasshoppers on his place, and he wants to know where they come from, and what they are doing there at this season.

MODERN medical science has discovered that little children, even infants, suffer more than has been supposed from rheumatism, and now a New York physician declares that they frequently die of apoplexy.

THE Philadelphia Press thinks Iron City would be the most appropriate name for consolidated Pittsburgh and Allegheny. The name is not new as applied to this city; but would it not be equally as absurd to change Philadelphia to the "Quaker City?" We pause for a reply.

A FOND father in Burlington growled like a dog with a sore head because a physician charged $10 for removing a kernel of corn from his son's ear, where it had lodged. He said a coffin only cost $7, and the corn would have sprouted soon and might have been pulled up by the roots.

THE Japanese government has issued a special edict proclaiming the toleration of Christianity throughout the Empire, and also opening up the entire country to foreigners. Should the provisions of the imperial order be carried into effect faithfully the consequences of its operation to the cause of Christianity and the commerce of the outside civilizations will be wonderful, almost incalculable.

A NEW Italian opera is announced, the scene of which is the garden of Eden. The chorus of seraphs and demons can be easily arranged, but there is said to be much difficulty in settling upon the costumes in the primal duo, the soprano insisting upon dressing Eve with a yellow satin train and diamond necklace, while the tenor wants to wear a purple velvet cloak and a rapier as Adam.

AN outrageous case of cruelty to animals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt. A man drove a team of horses through the deep snow until they stopped from exhaustion, then left them on the road reeking with perspiration, and went to a neighboring house for the night. In the morning he was so enraged at finding one of them dead, that he terminated the sufferings of the other by stabbing it with a knife.

OUR Japanese friends may have a new foreign difficulty. It is not likely that China will readily yield the great island of Formosa, to which the Japanese claim. That part of the island which faces the main land is settled and governed by Chinese, and is included in one of the provinces of the Empire. The rest of Formosa is settled by a wild and inhospitable race, suspected of cannibalism, and not specially desirable as subjects.

A VERY plucky school mistress keeps in Corinth, New York. She recently had occasion to reprimand a pupil, when a brother of the scholar rushed at her and took her by the throat. Forthwith she knocked him down. Getting up, he tried the experiment over again, with a like result. She then informed this champion that if he tried it a third time she would kill him, and he, not in the least doubting that she would keep her word, concluded to evacuate the seminary.

EVERYBODY eats peanuts, and everybody knows that some are full and plump, while others have little or nothing in them; but everybody does not know that before the retailer gets his peanuts they are separated, the full from the empty, by means of a fan, and sold at different prices. We mention these facts for the benefit of a long-suffering public, that it may know whenever expectation is balked by one of those empty shells, that the fraud is a purely legitimate matter of business.

THE menu of the economical Maine dinner party recently chronicled in these columns is thus given by a local paper: "One quart peas, cost 10 cents; two pounds beef for stew, 10 cents; one loaf Graham bread, 6 cents; butter and apple sauce, and one plain pie, a part of which only was eaten—the whole costing 37 to 40 cents, save expense of cooking." And yet, in the face of such a feast for nine persons, we are told that the President's salary must be doubled because he has to entertain a few foreign representatives!

THE "long strike" still continues in South Wales. Four thousand of the workmen empolyed by Messrs. Brogden, of the Llymer Works, have, however, returned to work, that firm having seceded from the Ironmasters' Union by accepting the following conditions proposed by the men on strike: 1. That the men return to work upon a reduction of five per cent. instead of ten per cent., as proposed by the masters. 2. That this continue for two weeks less two days. 3. That for one month afterward the old rate of wages be paid. 4. And that from the end of March until July the old rate of wages be paid.

MR. MACDONELL, British Charge d'Affaires at Buenos Ayres, has written a dispatch to his government which must powerfully discourage emigration to Brazil. Neither sheep farming, cattle raising, mining, agriculture, nor commerce presents openings to tempt an Englishman. No doubt a great deal of money has been made in Mexico, Brazil and the old Spanish colonies of South America, and no doubt there is a great deal more to be made there; but those countries are still enveloped in the golden haze of their former reputation—a reputation founded much on fact and very much more on fable.

IN Portland, Maine, a gentleman, unable to sleep from the pain of rheumatism, sent to the apothecary's shop for paregoric. Instead, laudanum was furnished, and a dose was given to the sick man. Soon after taking it he fell into a sleep from which he never awoke. The Portland Advertiser, for the sake of the apothecary, "who feels most keenly the result of his carelessness," refrains from mentioning his name; which strikes us as misplaced consideration and an injustice to the medicine-taking public. Apothecaries who put up laudanum instead of paregoric should have the honor of seeing their names printed in uncommonly large letters.

A MAN in Lakeville, Mass., named Bassett, has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment, for attempting to kill his mother-in-law. The proverbial odium which has attached to mothers-in-law will soon be changed to universal sympathy if the viciousness of sons-in-law receives no severer check than this. Considering the fact that the mother-in-law is the creation of necessity, and that there is little chance for her to decline the position in the majority of instances, we fail to see why she should be exposed to persecution. Granted that she is far from perfect, and that she too often fails to make family matters interesting to the son-in-law, she still is human, and her lot is a thankless one. If a young man takes a wife for better or worse, he certainly should have no objection to taking her mother for better or for worse.

THE MERCHANT NAVY of the world in 1872, according to figures published by the Statistical Bureau of Brussels, consists of 61,062 vessels, measuring 18,214,585 tons. The sailing vessels number 56,727, measuring 14,563,873 tons, and the steamers number 4,335, measuring 3,680,670 tons. Of the respective nations making up the list, Great Britain has 21,720 vessels, measuring 7,850,492 tons, and the United States has 7,512 vessels, measuring 2,680,163 tons. Of sailing vessels, Great Britain has 19,182, measuring 5,468,327 tons, and the United States has 7,092, measuring 2,279,120 tons. Of steamers, Great Britain has 2,538, measuring 2,382,145 tons, and the United States has 420, measuring 401,043 tons. In 1870 the merchant navy of the world consisted of 63,650 vessels, measuring 18,835,930 tons, divided into 50,518 sailing vessels, measuring 16,042,498 tons, and 4,132 steamers, measuring 9,793,434 tons.

EDWARD JAMES, the English lawyer who was debarred in London for unprofessional conduct, and who, after ten years of exile and humiliation, has been refused readmission to the bar, was formerly one of the ablest debaters in the House of Commons, and one of the most powerful and adroit pleaders in the courts.

AMADEUS' wife is very ambitious, and so he did not inform her of his intention to abdicate for fear of her opposition. When a little girl, studying in Paris, she dedicated herself to Notre Dame des Victoires, after being told that the Empress Eugenie had been from childhood a devout votary of the Virgin, and had been rewarded with a crown for her piety.

LATE New York papers note the progress of the suit of Miss Sadie Wilkinson against "Brick" Pomeroy for breach of promise of marriage. The faithless lover plead the statute of limitations, but the United States Circuit Court has overruled the plea and ordered the defendant to go to trial on the merits of the case. The lady asks for $25,000 to heal her damaged heart.

REV. DR. TALMAGE says there is more architectural skill in a crystal of salt than human ingenuity has ever demonstrated in an Alhambra of St. Peter's. It would take all time, with an infringement upon eternity, for an angel of God to tell one-half the glories of a salt crystal. This extravagantly long-tongued Doctor has a poor idea of the capacity of angels. Perhaps they do not use so many words without saying anything as the Reverend Doctor naturally supposes.

INDIAN WIVES.

The Indian Wives of Border Whites—Their Domestic Character—Games—Beauty of the Young Indian Maidens.

The custom of taking to themselves Indian wives still prevails among the hunters and trappers of our Western Territories, and a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, writing from Wyoming, says: It is no uncommon thing, in this mountainous region, to find a white man and a squaw who have a numerous progeny of half-breed children growing up around them. These children are active and quick-witted, and their descendants will go toward making up our highland population. The squaws make good and faithful wives, and, so far as their knowledge goes, good mothers. They seem to enjoy life, and, in their gambling games, get thoroughly excited. The women have games of their own, and no man interferes with them in any way. The game seems to be somewhat like the old play of the children called "Button, button, who's got the button?" During the whole game all the women sing together the most lively air I have ever heard among the savages, and all are eager for the possession of the grand prize, which consists of beads and bead-work, scissors, money, needles, thread, and a hundred other things dear to the feminine heart. The children, too, are anxious lookers on, and he who supposes the Indians do not enjoy themselves ought to see them engaged in this game, where their whole souls appear to be absorbed in pleasurable excitement. It is called Nisu-witz, the Game of Hand, and while it is going on a woman at either end of the two rows or players beats on the poles which separate them with all their might, keeping time to the music, and increasing the enthusiasm as much as possible. Some of the young squaws are handsome, black-eyed creatures, with masses of raven hair, who would attract attention anywhere. Their bright colored blankets set off their charms to the greatest advantage, and they appear modest and decorous enough. For a long time I was of opinion that there was no such thing as a handsome Indian girl, but in this I was mistaken, some of them being very fair to look upon. They break early in life, and the old women look like the veriest hags. The young girls have all the playful little ways of their fairer sisters, and the little ones have their dolly papooses, the same as white children. Human nature, after all, is a good deal the same everywhere, and a little observation among savages shows that they are governed by the same passions and impulses that we are, though untamed. A love of ease and a contempt for hard work are by no means confined to the redskins.

FOSTER'S FUNERAL.

The Report that he had Taken Poison Pronounced Groundless.

The remains of Foster, which lay in the Tombs prison yard until nine o'clock on Friday night, were removed at that hour to the abode of his wife. The utmost precaution was taken to keep the whereabouts of the body a complete secret, and the efforts were partially successful. Early on Saturday morning, a few hours previous to the funeral, the corpse was finally prepared and transferred to the store of an undertaker, under whose charge the remains were placed for a short time and then conveyed to an adjacent chapel, where prayers were read over the body by the Rev. Dr. Tyng and Rev. Dr. Walker. The remains were shortly afterwards retransferred to a hearse and thus carried to Greenwood Cemetery, which was reached about ten o'clock A. M. The bier was uncovered. Some thirty or forty men and two women stood around it. The Rev. Dr. Tyng had already performed the funeral rites at the chapel. After concluding he made a few brief remarks relative to the manner of life of the dead which he thought might have been misunderstood. He believed he died a thoroughly penitent man. During his imprisonment he showed religious fortitude, and frequently professed his hope in the mercy of God. The Rev. Doctor then said:—"He felt it his duty to state his belief that the report published in a morning paper that Foster had taken poison and was dying at the time immediately previous to the execution, was both groundless and false; that he and Doctor Walker were alone with Foster three-quarters of an hour previous to his going to the scaffold; that he seemed in good health and strength and showed remarkable self-possession of mind, dressed himself with minute care, and with commendable resignation and resolution walked firmly to the scaffold. The man's physical condition was good, but the intensity of his feeling overcame him, yet only for a very short time. He was calm, tranquil and resigned; he prayed piously and fervently, and showed by every act before his death and up to the last moment, that he had not only not made an attempt to commit suicide, but would be the last man to even contemplate such a thing." After some further remarks by the reverend gentleman the remains were interred. Thus ended the final and closing scene of this exciting tragedy.

FRANCE AND SPAIN.

Important Correspondence Relative to Carlism and Outrages on Frenchmen.

The two Latin race Republics do not, to all outward appearances, at least, fraternize very cordially in sentiment or policy. They are either too near to each other territorially or not sufficiently intimate in their democratic communion. The Governments at Versailles and in Madrid have just concluded an important correspondence relative to Carlism and its revolutionist efforts. France complains of outrages which have been perpetrated against French citizens by officers of the Government of the Spanish clerical Carlist chief, the cure of Santa Cruz. Senor Castelar replies in a circular expressive of his regret at the occurrence of the facts enumerated by M. Thiers, and then takes point against France in the argument that most of the Carlists are equipped in France and derive the bulk of their supplies, in money and commissariat, from French territory. The cure of Santa Cruz sojourned at Bayonne, passed thence into Spain, and was not interfered with when on French soil. Carlist troops in great numbers wear the uniform of French mobiles, and many Frenchmen of high rank are serving with the Spanish insurgents. Senor Castelar might have gone further, by hinting to the Government of M. Thiers that it had quietly permitted a meeting in Paris of the chiefs of the Orleans family to club together their little pile for the benefit of cousin Montpensier, the "orange-grower" candidate for the throne of Spain. If people in France will keep fanning the flame of Spanish insurrection, they can hardly complain if they get burned now and then. The Madid government has taken measures to put a stop to the commission of outrages against foreigners and neutral travellers in Spain. The mother and sister of the cure of Santa Cruz have been seized as hostages.

RUPTURE.

Every kind of Trusses for the cure of Rupture may be obtained at Dr. Keyser's establishment, No. 167 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa. It is a matter of the greatest consequence that all who are ruptured should be properly fitted with a suitable Truss, and one that will keep the ruptured parts in their place. Many persons do not know when they are ruptured, and frequently years are allowed to pass by before anything is done. This is a great error, and one that is often paid for at the expense of the person's life. Rupture is too serious an injury to be treated with lightness or neglect, especially when the means for its relief and cure are so easily obtained. Children and young persons are easily cured with the improved appliances which are constantly being added to the great variety which Dr. Keyser always has on hand.

Dr. Keyser's office, 167 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa., from 10 A. M. until 1 P. M., and from 3 to 6, and on Saturdays at night.

The late robberies of the banks in various parts of the country, and the consequent loss entailed upon depositors having made special deposits of bonds and other securities, has raised the question of the liability of banks for such special deposits. Depositors making such deposits usually regard the bank as liable, but the banks usually set up the plea that no charge is made for such services, they are not liable. The fact, however, that such special deposits are usually taken only from regular depositors, has been assumed as being consideration enough to bind the bank for liability. This view is taken by the Comptroller of the Currency as evidenced in the fact that a few years ago, a circular was issued to the National Banks, directing their attention to the illegality of taking or retaining such deposits. The safest plan for owners of bonds and securities is to deposit them in a safe deposit company, which especially guarantees the safe keeping of all deposits.

The following stocks were sold at Cole & Irwin's sales rooms, Nos. 68 and 70 Fifth avenue.

According to a statement recently issued, 1872 appears to have been an unfortunate year for mercantile failures. In that year there were 4,069 failures in the United States, with liabilities amounting to $121,056,000, against 2,915 and $85,252,000 in 1871. In Pennsylvania, last year, there were 445 failures, with $9,422,000 liabilities, against 357 and $7,110,000 the previous year.

The Philadelphia "Press" says:

We continue almost entirely unchanged our report of quotations for money yesterday. Loans on call were quoted at 6@7 per cent.; loans at three to four months on Government collateral at 8 per cent., and on collateral not up to first-class 10 to 12 per cent. Best endorsed paper was quoted at 10 to 10½ per cent. Some dealers in paper quote rates rather higher than those here furnished, but the sources of information sustain our quotations as correct for best commercial paper, of which, by-the-bye, but a limited amount is making or offering. The banks discount about all of the legitimate paper that their customers offer.

NEW YORK, March 24, 1873.

The week opens with an improved feeling in financial circles. Money was easier and accessible to borrowers on call at comparatively cheap rates. Foreign exchanges advanced, and stocks are in increased demand at a higher range of values. The announcement that forged "put" and "call" privileges were discovered proved to be only of a "call" on one hundred shares of stock. A rumor of the negotiation in London of £2,000,000 New York Central gold bonds was made, but is perhaps premature. Money ranged from 6 per cent. to 1-64 and interest, with the bulk of the loans at 7 per cent., at which there were free offerings at the close. Sterling was firm at 107⅞@108. Gold was lower, ranging from 115⅝ to 115⅜, closing at the latter rate. Loans 6½ to 7 per cent. for carrying, and flat for borrowing. Clearings $40,000,000. Treasury disbursements $71,600. Legal tender circulation $358,670,000, an increase of $30,000. Governments were quiet, but very strong, at ⅛ advance. State bonds were dull. Tennessees were heavy. Railroad mortgages were dull, with an advance in Union Pacifics. Stocks were firmer and prices 1@2 per cent. higher, with no marked reaction until 3 o'clock, when a weak feeling set in and part of the improvement was lost, though at the close there was a partial recovery and a steady tone. The greatest activity was in Pacific Mail, which fell at the opening from 55⅝ to 55⅛, and afterwards made a steady advance to 57⅛, reaching in late dealings 56⅝. Panama rose from 113 to 116⅛, the advance being well maintained. New York Central rose from 101¼ to 102⅜, closing at 102. Harlem was strong and rose to 135¼. Union Pacific ranged from 34⅝ to 35⅜. St. Paul 56⅝ to 57⅜. Ohio & Mississippi 45⅛ to 46⅛, and Hartford & Erie 4⅛@4⅜. Western Union Telegraph was exceptionally weak, and declined from 87¾ to 86⅜.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, March 24, 1873.

ASHES—Common Soda Ash 4,75@4,85c; Refined, high test, 6@6½c; Pearls, 11c; Pots, 6@6½c; Manganese, 6@6½c; Blacklead, 5½@6c; Arsenic, 4½@5c; Flour Spar, 2½@3c.

APPLE BUTTER—There is a fair inquiry, but the supply is fully up to the demand and prices remain unchanged, ranging from 45 to 55 do per gallon as to quality.

ALE—Brewers are feeling better, the vote of the two cities having been largely in favor of license, but there is no change in prices: X $8 per brl to the city and $9 to the country; XX, $10; India Ale, $11.

APPLES—There is a very fair demand for good sound fruit, but common is dull and hard to dispose of at any price; sales at $1.50@2 per brl for common to fair and $2.50@3.25 for medium to choice.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 33@35 cents per lb.

BEANS—There is a continued fair for jobbing demand but the supply under the influence of continued liberal receipts, is fully equal to it and prices remain unchanged, ranging from $2.25@2.75 per bushel, the outside figure for prime navy.

BROOM CORN—Continues to arrive pretty freely and the supply is somewhat in excess of present requirements: prices however, are without quotable change, 4½@5½c for green and 6½@7c for hurl.

BUTTER—The receipts continue liberal, but with a steady demand, especially for good stock, there is no accumulation and prices are still sustained; quotations may be fairly given at 10@15c for inferior to common; 17 to 20c for fair to medium; 30@33c for prime to choice and 35c for fancy—the latter considered an outside quotation.

BAGGING—Penn Mill: two bushel, 37c; two and a half bushel, 45c; three bushel, 58c.

COTTON, SHEETING and YARNS.—Penn Mill A. No. 1: 4-4 Sheeting, 13c; Nonatook, 12½c; Pittsburgh Family, 12c; Juniata B. fine, 11½c; White Carpet Chain fine 36c; Colored, 45c Cotton batting, 20; Cotton Twine, Yarn and Wicking 36

CANNED GOODS—The demand continues light, and it begins to look as if considerable will have to be carried over until next year. Prices, however, remain unchanged: Peaches, 3 lb. cans, $3@3.25; 2 lb. cans, $2.50; Winslow's Corn, $3; other brands, $2.50@2.75; Tomatoes $1.75@2.50.

CEMENT, ETC, ETC—Louisville Hydraulic, $2.50@2.75 per brl; Calcined Plaster, $4.25@4.50; Land Plaster, $3.00@4.25; Cleveland and Perrysburg Lime, $1.75; Eastern do $1.50@1.75.

CARBON OIL—The market continues very dull, as it usually is at this particular time, and there is not much prospect of an early improvement; prices remain unchanged, 15c by the car load, and 2@3c additional for smaller lots.

CHEESE—Trade although not active is fair and prices, especially for best grades are well sustained; choice brands of Goshen, 17@17½c; good to prime 16@16½c; fair to medium, 14@15c.

DRIED FRUIT—Some 1,200 brls of Apples have been taken out of this market recently, and shipped to Chicago, but the supply is still in excess of the demand, although the market, as might be expected, is a shade firmer—there is no change, however, in prices, 4 to 5c per lb. Peaches continue dull but unchanged: 6½@7½c for halves; 5½@6 for mixed; 5@5½c for quarters and 16@18c for peeled. Blackberries, 10@12c. Pitted Cherries, 18@20c; unpitted 18@20c.

EGGS—The market has stiffened up very materially within the past few days, and notwithstanding the receipts continue fair, the supply has been and continues unequal to the demand and prices have advanced to 25@26c. It is not expected, however, that these prices will be maintained any length of time, hence we would advise our friends in the country to get there stock into market as quick as possible.

FLOUR—The market continues quiet and dull, and while the feeling is weaker, there is no quotable change in prices; the receipts for several weeks past have been liberal, and with a diminished demand, stocks are accumulating, and dealers are more anxious to realize. We continue to quote Spring wheat flours, $7.50@8 for fair to choice Wisconsin's $8.25 for choice Minnesotas, and $8.50@9.00 for fair to choice red winter wheat. New York was reported a shade better on Saturday, but Liverpool continues quiet and unchanged, hence, it is fair to infer there is no quotable improvement in the export trade. Rye Flour, $5.50@5.75.

GRAIN—The Grain trade has been very quiet for some weeks past, but an early change for the better is anticipated. Wheat, although weaker in sympathy with the advices from other points, is unchanged; prices, in consequence of continued light receipts, are still maintained; $1.75@1.80 for fair to prime red, and $1.85@1.90 for white. As we have repeatedly stated, Wheat is considerably higher than flour, while the latter has declined from 50 to 75c per brl. as compared with the highest point, there has been no change in the former—the depreciation in flour is equivalent to 10@12c per bushel on Wheat. It begins to look as if the mills here will be forced to use spring wheat, as they cannot afford to pay present rates and compete with western flours. There is no question but what the supply of winter wheat, especially in those sections of the country from whence we draw most of our supplies, is very much reduced: we learn that some of the mills in Indiana and Ohio have commenced to use spring wheat. The Oat market is a shade firmer, and prices are a fraction higher, may be quoted at 41@43 for black; 43@44 for good mixed; and 45@46 for prime white. It is expected in view of the fact that the vote of last Friday was overwhelming in favor of license, that there will be an increased demand for Corn, Rye and Barley, though no improvement in prices are anticipated. Shelled Corn is quoted at 49@50 on track, and 51@52 free in elevator. Ear Corn, 53@55. Rye very quiet, and in the absence of sales we continue to quote at 85@90. Barley is nominal at 85@90 for spring, and 95@$1 for fall.

GROCERIES—Trade is improving slowly, although it is not active; nor is it what it ought to be or usually is at this season of the year. Coffee continues weak, and notwithstanding it has dropped fully 2c per lb. from the highest point, the indications are that the bottom has not yet been reached. Roasted, as noted previously, has been reduced 1c per lb: in our market—there is but little green Coffee selling. Sugars, Molasses and Syrups, quiet and unchanged.

COFFEE—Rio, Choice, 26; Prime, 25; Good, 24c. Java, Choice, 28; Prime, 27; Good, 26. Roasted Rio 27 in packages; 26½ loose. Roasted Java, package, 32, loose, 31.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9; prime, 8½; Patna, 8@8½; Rangoon, 7½@8.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 13¼; Crushed, Granulated and Powdered, 12¾; Standard A, 11½; B, 11½; Ex. C, 11¼; C, 11½; C, 11; H. & E. C. ExC 10½@10¾. Monumental Ex C, 10¾; Lower grades, 8½@10¼. N. O. Sugars, Choice 10½. Prime, 10½; Good, 9¾—stock small. P. R., 10@10½—light stock.

MOLASSES—Choice New Orleans, 78@80c; Prime 74@75.

SYRUPS—White Drips, 70; other grades ranging from 65 to 40, as to quality.

SUNDRIES—Penna. Con Lye, $8.50. Philadelphia, $7.75. Bi-carb. Soda, kegs, 8⅞c. Boxes $8½. Hammel's Ex Coffee, 4.50. Oswego & Durye's Corn starch, 11; silver and satin, 10 Buffalo Corn Starch, 10; Buffalo Glossstarch, 9.

HAY—The receipts of baled have been comparatively light for some days past, and with a slight improvement in the demand, the market is firmer, and we advance quotations to $23@30 according to quality and condition. Dealers are expecting that the market will rule firmer during the next thirty or forty days, as the roads are usually in bad condition at this particular time, and besides, farmers will be busily engaged in putting in their spring crops, hence, it is anticipated that the arrivals will continue light. Loose is selling from country wagons at $25@35 per ton, as to quality.

HIDES—Following are the ruling quotations: Green Salted Steer Hides, 11½@12¼; Green Salted Mixed, 11¼@11¼; Green Salted Cow, 11@11¼; Green Butcher Steer, 9c; Green Salted Kip, 0.13@0.14; Green Salted Calf each, 15@0.17@18; Green Butcher's Calf, 12; Dry Flint Hides nominal at 22.

MAPLE SYRUP—Is coming in more freely but there is no change in prices, $1.05@1.75 for gallon jugs. Choice new Maple Sugar, 20; good, 18.

MILL FEED—The arrivals continue comparatively light, but the supply is still in excess of the demand, and prices are without quotable change. Bran $3@30 cents; Seconds, $31@1.10; Middlings, $1.20@1.30.

OILS—No. 1 Lard Oil, 75@75; No. 2, 63; Linseed 88@90c; Whale No 1, 80@90; Bank, 75; Straits, 83 Cod, $1.50@2 Spirits of Turpentine 65@70c.

ONIONS—Prime Silver Skins, 6.50@7 per barrel; good red, $5. Onion Setts, $5@$6 per bushel, as to quality.

WINDOW GLASS—Trade although backward, caused by the protracted winter weather, is nevertheless improving, and, as noted in our last report, there is a firmer feeling with indications of an early advance; it is claimed that there is little or no margin at present rates, in consequence of the increased cost of the raw material, and it is contemplated, we understand, to advance the card or reduce the discount, which is virtually about one and the same thing.

CATTLE.

The supply, as will be seen, was considerably below that of last Monday; of the 42 cars above reported, 5 cars were stockers, bought at Chicago for stock growers, and of course were not put upon the market; deducting these, we have but 37 cars left and these constituted number on sale, against 53 cars last week, a falling off of sixteen cars. Trade opened a little sluggish and for a time it looked as if the market was destined to be hard one; later in the day, however, private advices were received from New York, reporting a decided improvement there, and this, as soon as it became known, had a very preceptible effect. There was not the same pressure to sell: in fact some of holders kept what they had and added to the number, and between them and the butchers, who also got an inkling of what was up, the yards were soon cleared—by eleven o'clock, about all the cattle on sale had been picked up. Rothchilds and Haas after selling two cars turned in and bought three cars; Eli Katz picked up what he could, and there was a wholesale buyer in attendance, from East Liberty, who would have taken several cars if he would have found the kind he wanted. This being the case, trade was more active and the market stiffened up considerably towards the close: some sellers were lamenting, towards noon, that they did not hold on to their stock with a little more tenacity, and there is no question but what cattle were disposed of to better advantage for the seller, near the close than in the early part of the day. The quality, as a rule, was fair, while there were but few that could be denominated strictly prime, supply of scalawag stock, was also light—the great bulk of the offerings consisted of what might be classified medium to good; drovers nearly agreed in reporting the market, upon the whole, as having been better than for several weeks past and from all that we could learn, they all made a little money. Extra butcher cattle, of which as already stated, the supply was light, may be quoted at 7@7½c; good to prime 6½@6¾c; fair to medium, 5@5¾c. Stock steers 800 to 1,000 lbs, 3½@4½c. Old cows and stags, 3@4c; bulls 3½@5c for common to extra. Fresh cows may be quoted at from $25 to $65, per head as to quality—the bulk of the offerings are common.

Rothchilds & Haas sold two cars from Chicago at 5¾@6¼c; bought 3 cars for shipment to New York at 4 to 6c.

Greenwald & Kahn sold 2 cars from Chicago stock at 5 to 7c.

Sol. Trauman reports 23 head of butchers stock at 5½@6¼c.

W. Moonshine reports 36 head butcher cattle from Chicago at 5¾@6¾.

C. F. Laiblin wholesaled 1 car good 1,100 steers at 5¾; 4 fresh cows at $35 per head.

Nicholas Fullon sold 2 fresh cows and 1 springer for C. M. Helmes for $55.

J. W. Cunningham sold 3 fresh cows at an average of $28 each.

Henry Nagle sold 4 head Butler Co. mixed stock at 3¾@5¾.

Peter Hartman reports one car and a half of Chicago stock at 5¼@6¾.

Eli Katz reports 2 cars of Chicago stock at 6@7¾; 1 car of Ohio stock at $20@30 for fresh cows and bulls 3¼@4¾.

Fred Hector sold 3 fair 1,000 steers at 5¼; 1 bull at 4¾; 4 good fresh cows at $50 each.

L. Keefer reports 29 head fair to prime butcher stock at 5¾@7c.

M. Kraus reports 25 from Chicago at 5¾@6¾.

Jacob Needy reports two cars from Chicago at 5½@6¾.

Louis Gerson 16 head fair to prime Ohio stock at 5.40@6.80.

Holmes, L & Co. 76 head of mixed Indiana stock at 4@6.

Sadler, Havens and Co. report 64 head of mixed Ohio stock at 3½@6¾.

S. Marks and Bro. report 50 from Ohio and Chicago at 4½@7.

J. Hunter sold 31 common to fair Ohio stock at 5¼@6¾.

Thos. Kestner, 1 car butcher stock from Chicago at 5.80@6.85.

Smith and Kraus, 33 head of Chicago stock at 5¾@6¾.

Nicholas Carr sold 1 car of Ohio stock at 5¾@6¾.

SHEEP.

The supply, although considerably in excess of last Monday, was light—about 440 head, and it was not equal to the demand. There seemed to be an increased inquiry for this class of stock; the "tops" were all picked up at full prices early in the day, and by 11 o'clock, the "tails" had nearly all disappeared also—we presume that 200 or 300 more would have met with a ready sale at good prices. It should be borne in mind by those who are not posted in regard to this market, that the great proportion of the sheep sold here are retailed, hence, higher prices prevailed than could be obtained in East Liberty, where the buyer is dependent entirely on the eastern markets—Allegheny is a retail market. Prime to extra brought from 7 to 7¾; medium to good, 6@6½; common to fair, 5@5¾.

Mike Filsner reports 50 head Butler Co. sheep at 5@7c.

Adam Eckert sold 167 head of Ohio sheep, mixed, at 5¾@7¾.

Henry Nagle reports 22 good Butler Co. sheep averaging 108 lbs, at 7¾.

F. Hector sold 138 fair to good mixed wool Ohio sheep for P. M. Snyder, at 6¾@7¾.

John Montgomery reports 35 fair coarse wool stock, $4¾@5 per head

Thos McCullough sold 58 from Armstrong Co. at 6@7.

HOGS.

The supply was only fair and in the hands of the regular dealers: trade was reported more active, and prices, as compared with last Monday, a shade higher; may be quoted in a retail way at 5¾@6¾ gross. Laiblin wholesaled a single deck at 5¼.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, March 24, 1873.

The Wool Trade.

BOSTON, March 22.—The Shipping List says: The receipts of domestic for the week have been 2,405 bales against 2,324 bales in 1872, and 1,092 bales in 1871. The receipts of foreign have been 2,634 bales from Melbourne against 581 bales foreign last year.

Manufacturers have been operating quite freely is a quiet way and holders are still free sellers when responsible buyers present themselves, as scarcely any offer for domestic wool has been refused. The disposition, in fact, to close up stocks is so general that prices of fleeces are 1@2c less than last week, good lines of Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania having been sold at 55c, and pulled has settled down to 28@3c from last week and full 10c per lb. from the current rates a few weeks ago.

The demand is exclusively from manufacturers and every lot sold goes into consumption. There is no speculative inquiry whatever, and not likely to be for the present. Buyers have been able to obtain concessions for each successive week for some time, and there appears to be no check to the downward tendency as yet. Both manufacturers and Wool dealers are in fact anxious that prices should touch bottom in order that the new clips of California and the West may open on a healthy basis.

There has been quite a demand for combing and delaine fleeces, from local buyers and for Philadelphia, and all available lots of this description have been bought up at prices ranging from 60@65¾c per lb.

About 1,000,000 lbs new Australian Wool have been received from Melbourne, the first direct import of the season, and remains unsold. Cape Wool has been inquired for, and an offer of 25c for a large lot has been refused. This description is generally held above the views of buyers, and while the transactions in domestic have been quite large, there has been no movement of any importance in foreign.

Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia Fleeces—The sales include 24,000 lbs Pennsylvania, XX and above, at 60@62c; 20,000 lbs choice No 1 and X Ohio at 60c; 10,000 lbs choice XX West Virginia at 60c; 30,000 lbs X and XX Pennsylvania at 59c; 15,000 lbs X and XX Ohio at 56@57c; 16,000 lbs X and XX Pennsylvania at 56c; 8,000 lbs XX Ohio at 57c; 9,000 lbs XX Ohio at 56c; and 61,000 lbs X and XX Pennsylvania and Ohio at 55c per lb.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Business was moderately active with jobbers, but the distribution of summer fabrics was checked by the cold weather. Commission houses were rather quiet. Cotton goods were firm and steady in price, except for the lowest grade of sheetings and shirtings, which were weak. Beaver Creek denims are sold ahead, and all makes are active at firm prices. Prints are active. Sprague's Ancona and Freeman imitation Japanese stripes, percales and Polka Spots are very brisk. Fancy cassimeres are more active in jobbers' hands. Colored silks are dull and selling low.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily, with scant 9 feet in the channel last evening.

No arrivals from below. The Juniata was due from Cincinnati last night with a big trip, and will doubtless be found in port this morning. She will at once commence making engagements for a return trip.

The Wild Duck, Capt Adams, is announced for St. Louis, as is also the Comet, Capt. Hare. Both of these boats are permanently in the trade.

The non-arrival of the Julia, from Zanesville, confirms the report of her purchase for the Charleston and Cincinnati trade.

The E. H. Durfee and Messenger were to have left St. Louis for this port on Saturday.

—The Sioux City Journal of the 18th says: The Silver Lake has not yet made the levee. The river was full of floating ice from above yesterday. The Miner is about ready to slip from the ways into her native element. Com. Coulson went down to the Western yesterday, expecting to bring her up to the city to-day. The ferryboat commenced making regular trips yesterday.

—Efforts are being made to raise the Sioux City which has sunk in the Missouri above Sioux City. She was built here in 1870 for E B Cooper, of Sioux City, carried 300 tons, length on deck 165 feet, breadth 30 feet, and 3½ feet hold, with two 4 feet stroke and 13 inches diameter. Her original cost was $17,000.

—The Vicksburg Herald says: "It is thought to be quite certain that Capt. Leathers will take his lightning steamer to St. Louis very soon, making faster time than has ever been made before. The engineer of the Natchez said yesterday that she would run faster now than when she made the race with Lee."

—The estate of George L. Kouns, one of the wealthiest steamboat owners in the south, is to be sold at marshal sale under the bankrupt law at New Orleans. He built and owned the 13 Eras plying in Red river, the Grand Era and other steamers, and owned the ferry privileges at Algiers.

—The New Albany wharfboat and other like concerns at points along the Lower Ohio are covered with freight awaiting shipments to New Orleans.

—McDonald Brothers, of Lacrosse, Wisconsin, have purchased the Kate Waters for $5,500; also the Jim Watson for $3,500.

Quarrel Over a Railway "Pool"—The Eight Hour Movement—A General Strike Imminent—The Bull's Head Bank Defalcation—S. L. M. Barlow Examined by the Erie Investigating Committee.

NEW YORK, March 24, 1873.

The Eight Hour Movement.

The proposed movement for a general strike among the workingmen for the maintenance of the eight hour law is gathering strength. At a meeting of the German shoemakers held yesterday, addresses were made favoring a strong organization, so as to participate in the coming strikes. The Internationalist Association propose taking legal means against employers who refuse to comply with the eight hour law. Members of that body think that all sections and trades should strike this year to enforce that law.

The Erie Investigation.

At the Erie investigation to-day, S. L. M. Barlow, one of the Erie Directors and counsel for the Company, testified that when Mr. Love, one of the old Directors, called upon him respecting the proposed change of management, he wanted one million and a half of dollars. Mr Barlow succeeded in having the amount reduced, after communicating with McHenry, to three hundred thousand dollars; besides this amount, there were paid fifty thousand dollars to a Mr. O'Doherty, and these, excepting what was paid Sickles and to miscellaneous counsel, were all the sums he knew of having been paid.

Mr. Barlow detailed at length the circumstances of the negotiations he had effected with Bischoffsheim & Co., whereby the Erie Company was saved from bankruptcy by that firm placing upon the market thirty millions of Erie consolidated bonds. Mr. Barlow did not know how much was paid to General Sickles for his personal services. In reference to the thirty thousand dollars voted to the New York Central Company, that was for Erie's share in the expenses incurred by the New York Central in connection with the pro rata bill, the directors of that road having stated that the bill cost them $100,000. He did not know, however, whether the money was paid for legislation.

The Erie investigation to-day developed the fact that General Sickles received $15,000 for his services in connection with the change of directorship.

Quarrel Over a Railway "Pool."

Asariah Boody has brought suit against Dan'l Drew, Kenyon, Cox & Co., and others, in the Supreme Court. The plaintiff and most of the defendants entered into a "pool" arrangement in the Toledo, Wabash and Western Railroad, in which the plaintiff was to take twelve thousand five hundred shares with a margin beyond that number. Kenyon, Cox & Co. were brokers for the "pool." At the close of the "pool" the brokers reported 185,000 shares on hand, and the cost $6,767,619, and called on the plaintiff to take up 15,600 shares on that basis. The plaintiff now insists that the brokers used the "pool" stock for "puts" and "calls" for other purposes, and demands a full and complete account from the brokers of the transactions, making also other members of the pool parties defendant. These defendants demurred to the complaint, and a motion by the plaintiff for judgment on their demurrer as frivolous was argued to-day before Justice Fancher, who has reserved his decision.

The Bull's Head Bank.

The depositors of the Bull's Head Bank met to-day to try and arrange matters between the the stockholders and depositors, so that the former would make good the deficiency and the latter still to continue to do business with the bank. A committee of five was appointed to confer with the stockholders on the subject. Willet, the cashier, made a statement showing the deficiency to be $257,000. Marshal Fiske has deputized Charles A. Meigs, Bank Examiner of this district, to take charge of the property.

The Goodrich Murder.

Two Brooklyn detectives were in this city to-day, and returned to Brooklyn with a New York man who has had business relations with Charles Goodrich, murdered there a few nights ago. The Coroner, District Attorney, detectives and a stranger had several consultations during the day. The officials decline to make public the result of the consultations, or to say if the stranger is under arrest. District Attorney Britton said this afternoon: "I am pretty well satisfied as to who committed this murder, if we can get hold of them."

Stokes' Case.

Mr. Des Passos, counsel for Stokes, made an application to-day in the Court of Oyer and Terminer for an order to show cause why the judgment on record in the case should not be amended, on the ground that it does not include material facts. The Court took the papers.

How Erie's Money was Squandered.

An Albany correspondent says that of the moneys paid by the Erie Directors for expenses, in connection with the removal of Gould and others, thirty thousand dollars was divided up among six members of the State Senate.

Business Hours of the Cotton Exchange.

At a meeting of the Cotton Exchange to-day the Board of Managers were requested to insert in the by-laws a clause prohibiting the transaction of any business on 'Change except between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M.

Mrs. Foster Prostrated.

The widow of Foster, who was hanged on Friday last, is utterly prostrated, and not expected to live.

THE BEAVER FALLS CONTROVERSY.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

BEAVER FALLS, March 22, 1873.

The GAZETTE of the 18th inst., published a letter from our place signed "Junius," to which we would request you to insert the following reply: We hardly deem it necessary to take any special notice of it. But the contents, however, being so far from the truth, may render it advisable in justice to our citizens to publicly contradict it.

It is not our purpose to be understood as wishing to discuss the propriety of the employment of Chinamen in detriment to white labor. We have the assurance of the other manufacturers located here that they do not intend giving employment to Coolies.

So we are narrowed down to its consideration as we find it in the Beaver Falls Cutlery Company. The circumstances under which they employed Chinamen have been frequently published, and the citizens here are familiar with them. In consequence, we do justify the Harmony Society in their answer, and recognize the right of the Cutlery Company to legally manage their business to suit themselves, and the threatened agitation in foolish scribbling for publication under fictitious names are just so many empty bubbles.

The troublesome point with "Junius" and such as agree with him, seems to be that there was an answer made to the reply of the Harmony Society respecting Chinese labor in the cutlery works, and that it was signed by 177 of the citizens and property holders of Beaver Falls.

The guarantee that 125 to 150 would gladly take off their names has its origin within his own imagination. He clearly shows his ignorance of who the signers were when he claims that 117 are residents of New Brighton and vicinity, (which I assert is positively false).

There were about 6 signers from New Brighton who requested that their names be added as they were property holders in this place.

And for Junius' especial benefit I would say that quite a number of citizens called to sign the paper when they regretted to learn that it had been sent to the Harmony Society.

Also that 100 or more signed it not knowing what it was, or intended for, or by false pretense, is simply an insult to the signers. The parties signing the paper fully understood what they were doing, and are capable of seeing through more intricate matter than it contained.

And as regards merchants he says we have twenty odd in business here; out of this number five signed it. In contradiction to this assertion I positively assert that eighteen signed it.

Another display of ignorance—in speaking of three hundred employees of the F[illegible] works, only three signed it; they employ not over one hundred and fifty men, boys and girls—and the number signing it, will considerably exceed three. There is considerable unanimity in Junius' blunders.

As regards the last meeting held in Beaver Falls being "as large and orderly as any one held, yet we do not feel disposed to contradict as we do not consider that any of them were especially large or noted for good order. The house crowded, aisles full, would sound large, but the hall is not as large as the City Hall of Pittsburgh, and further the advertisements and poster for the last meeting called for a county convention, and here is where Junius finds his New Brighton and vicinity citizens in this our crowded 8 by 10 hall.

The principal speaker of the evening being a resident of an adjoining town, and as we are informed a spiritualist believing in the transmigration of the soul after death into sour kraut or some other vegetable.

The other speaker, my old friend Hezekiah, is of the same school, (this gentleman also signed the paper advanced to the Harmony Society.) We can only account for his action on the ground that when he was acting for Hezekiah he felt friendly to the society, but when the spirits took hold of him he was not responsible for his action. Perhaps by the same spirit that advised him of Uncle Dan's death, when upon learning of Uncle Dan being alive and hearty as ever, concluded it was an evil spirit. A new translation of the Bible through inspiration is also promised from this same individual.

To sum up, Junius says 4577 could easily subdue 177; this sounds as if there might be danger, but I presume he refers to "spotting" an expression we frequently hear here from a few persons, who would not buy our merchandise or use Beaver Falls cutlery.

Further, we have about 550 votes enrolled, and out of these 171, consisting of merchants, manufacturers, ministers, all property holders, signed the reply to the Economites, and quite a number at that time did not wish to take part either way, and the agitation as far as this place is concerned is in the hands of a very few individuals.

When Junius speaks of 4,577 against 177, I wonder if he knows how many 10 20ths's are, the number he mentions afterwards. First he names the proportion 3 to 300, then 4,877 against 177, then 10 20ths. Where is the unanimity boasted of.

YOURS, XYLO.

"Protect Your Own."

The man who does not provide for his own is worse than an infidel, is an announcement made on authority higher than human. Yet how often does it happen that men who are professedly prudent, energetic and faithful men in all that pertains to the direct interests of their families, neglect one of the most important matters of all—neglect to insure themselves that what they have gained by hard toil shall be guarded and its value made secure by a policy of fire insurance, so that in case of a conflagration, they will not lose that for which they have toiled. Let all who know themselves derelict in this respect, go at once and take out a policy of insurance in that reliable company, the Teutonia of Allegheny. The Secretary, Mr. H. Eggers, can be found any hour of the day at the office No. 206 East Ohio street.

We bespeak the attention of capitalists, coal operators, etc., to a Masters' sale in partition, to be made at the Court House, on the 15th of April, pursuant to an order of Court, advertised in this paper. We suppose the sale will be peremptory, and, as about 100 acres of coal, eligibly situated on one of the pools of the Monongahela slack water, and therefore very valuable, will be offered, an opportunity for profitable investment, such as rarely occurs, will be presented in this sale. Let those concerned remember the day and attend the sale.

"Boarding House for Working Women."

The managers of this worthy institution propose holding a fair at City Hall during the last week in April, as is their custom. They have invited co-operation from all the churches, and yesterday held a meeting at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, at which representatives from a large number of congregations in the two cities were present. The matter was discussed in an informal way, and a resolution passed earnestly soliciting the assistance of the charitable in aid of the undertaking. They are especially desirous that persons who propose to send donations, leave word of their intention at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, as soon as possible.

Thrown from a Buggy.

Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock, Mrs. Adolph Oberheldman, of the Thirty-fifth ward, started in a buggy from Hare's Hotel, Liberty street, to drive to her residence, on the South Side. After going a short distance the horse took fright at a locomotive on Liberty street and ran off. At the corner of Fifth and Liberty streets the lady was thrown from the buggy, causing severe injuries about her head and shoulders, and rendering her insensible. She was removed to the house of Mrs. McKnight, and Dr. Tyndal was called to attend her injuries. She recovered her consciousness in a short time, and was removed to her home, on Washington pike, Thirty-fifth ward.

Military.

This is the hall given by Councils for the use of the military, and which has been very handsomely fitted up and arranged for the purpose designed. The exercises incident to the opening, will consist of roll call of companies at eight o'clock, promenade and inspection of drill and company rooms for half hour, when the battalion will assemble and move into City Hall for inspection and review by Mayor Blackmore, the programme to wind up with a dress parade. It is expected that a large company will be in attendance and in view of that fact no one will be admitted without an invitation or a pass.

Another "Meanest Man."

An old gentleman living at Soho, called at the Mayor's office yesterday morning, and related a story which, if true, would entitle the mean man to the championship. The man complained of had been boarding with the old gentleman for several weeks, and during most of the time had been very ill with the typhoid fever. He had not paid any board since he had been there, and moreover the lady of the house had nursed him tenderly through all his sickness. Recently the boarder sent home to England for money. He received fifty dollars and a free pass to England. Last night he quietly disappeared with all his effects and also the old gentleman's best clothing, leaving behind him only his unpaid bill. He is supposed to be in New York about this time. No information was made.

A Speculation.

Yesterday afternoon a man peddling spectacles stopped at the residence of an old lady on Rebecca street, Allegheny. She offered to trade him an old pair of "specs" for a new pair and give him boot, but he wanted two dollars, which was finally reduced to one dollar and a half, but that was too much and no trade was made. The "ped" walked off, but a few minutes after he came back and said he would swap for one dollar. This the old lady agreed to, and produced her old "specs," which the man of "sight improving" took, and at once from his own valise produced a new case, which, of course, the lady thought contained the coveted prize. She took them, gave the man his dollar and he departed. Shortly after the lady wanted to read, and from the case thought she would produce her new spectacles, but what her surprise was, when she found the same old pair contained therein can be better imagined than expressed.

Remarkable Cat and Rat Story.

The Freeport New Era vouches for the following: "An elderly lady of this place was considerably frightened the other night by what seemed to her dogs or some other quadruped robbing her hen roost, she ventured out to see the cause of the alarm, after having ventured some distance up the garden, discovered that the noise came from the inside of the house, she, with considerable resolution, went back into the house and after some time discovered the secret of the trouble. She found her tom cat had chased up a rat, who had got on the roof, and puss after his ratship. The rat being closely pursued bounded into the chimney, puss after him, both came tumbling down the chimney sweeping the soot along with them, completely deluging the room with soot. It was some time before the lady could "take in the situation" the timely arrival of the rat, which rolled down into the fire and was consumed, at once convinced her that her dear puss had had an encounter with the aforesaid rat. Her next trouble was how to get her favorite tom out of the narrow flue, and succeeded, by removing part of the back wall, thereby saving the life of Thomas, but not without getting severely burnt in the operation. Thus ends one of the most remarkable rat and cat stories ever chronicled.

P. S.—Since writing the above we learn that the cat has died from injuries received."

COUNTING THE VOTE.

Returns to be Opened To-day.

To-day, Clerk McCleary, of the Quarter Sessions Court, will open and count such returns from the county of last Friday's election as may be sent to him. He has thus far received but comparatively few of the returns, but it is probable all will be in by this afternoon, when the list will be posted up and the result officially announced.

The Great Closing Sale at Macrum & Carlisle's has proved an immense success. Crowds of ladies throng the store from morning till night, and seem delighted with the elegant goods at such a large discount.

The defendant is charged with having collected, while in the employ of the Manhattan Life Insurance Company of New York city, various sums of money, amounting in the aggregate to $7,838 69, and promissory notes amounting in the aggregate to $2,115 95, which sums of money and promissory notes he failed to report to the company, but fraudulently converted the same to his own use.

OBITUARY.

Death of John B. Semple.

It is our painful duty to announce the death of another of our prominent citizens. Mr. John B. Semple, who had for some days been suffering under a severe attack of pneumonia, breathed his last at eight o'clock on Monday morning, at the Monongahela House, in this city, in the fifty-eighth year of his age. Mr. Semple was a native of this city, and belonged to one of the oldest and most worthy of our Pittsburgh families. He was a son of the late William Semple, and brother of the late William M., Samuel W., Alexander B. and Charles. Mrs. Bissell, relict of the late John Bissell, is, we believe his only surviving sister.

The subject of this notice was for some years previous to the great fire of 1845 the senior partner in the dry goods jobbing house of Semple & Parker, in this city, after which, from 1846 to 1854 he was a Hardware Merchant, at Louisville, Kentucky. Returning thence to his native city, he associated with Mr. John Jones, in establishing the banking house of Semple & Jones, in which he continued until his death. Mr. Semple has been a great sufferer during much of his adult life, from a chronic disease of the blood with painful cutaneous eruptions; he has found occasional, but temporary relief from the mineral waters of Virginia, whither he was wont to go in search of health from year to year. He was remarkable for the uncomplaining patience, fortitude and Christian resignation with which he has borne through many years, his sore affliction, continuing courageously to discharge all secular and religious duties, devoting much time to the care of his business when his friends thought he should be in bed, but he contended manfully against an obstinate and troublesome physical infirmity. Strict integrity, exactitude and probity have been the rule and practice throughout all his extensive and varied business transactions, and to the full extent of his bodily strength he was diligent in business.

He has long been a consistent and exemplary member of the Presbyterian Church. His stricken family and mourning friends should console themselves with the reflection, that when his soul left its earthly tabernacle, it was present with the Lord; that he is relieved from chastening and suffering and gone to a blissful and eternal rest, and in the inspired words, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

RENEWING HOSTILITIES.

"Squire" Ross Again on the War Path—His Latest Foray upon the Enemy—Forty-Eight Suits Entered Yesterday.

Squire Ross, of Allegheny, who has been resting from his attacks, direct, on the saloon keepers for several months past, has been imbued with a fresh inspiration from the results of last week's voting on the license question, and has again started out on his mission of seeing that the present license laws are enforced. Yesterday was the time set apart for his renewal of hostilities, and without waiting to see what might be the outcome of the proposed "Conference" at the Alliance Rooms, he was around bright and early. Before noon forty-eight saloon-keepers were requested to appear before Alderman Crist, of the Sixth ward, Allegheny, and those of the forty-eight saloon-keepers who responded with alacrity to the pressing invitations found informations lodged against them for selling liquor on Sunday and selling to minors, in all of which their inveterate foe appeared as prosecutor. They promptly gave bail for appearance at Court, as the others in all probability will do when they appear before the magisterial bar. This renewal of hostilities, materially, created something of a flutter among the saloon keepers in Allegheny, which considerably interferred with last Friday's success.

OPERATIONS OF THE BURGLARS.

A Store on Fifth Avenue Broken Into—An Unsuccessful Attempt to Open the Safe.

When the tin and house furnishing store of Henry Smith & Bro., at 327 Fifth avenue, opposite the new Market House, was opened for business yesterday morning, it became evident that burglars had been operating during the night. An entrance to the store had been effected by forcing open a back window in an alley. The thieves commenced operations by opening the show case, from which they took a large number of pocket knives and other articles. The desk was also opened and a small sum of money taken from one of the drawers. An attempt was evidently made to open the safe, as marks of a jimmy were visible. The burglars had perhaps been frightened away while engaged in this last operation, or they found it impossible to accomplish their object. A large quantity of burnt paper was found on the floor, which seems to indicate that an attempt was made to burn the store.

Mr. Smith's loss will amount in all to about two hundred dollars. There is, as yet, no clue to the affair, which would lead to the detection of the guilty parties.

....A fine Concert was given at the Presbyterian Church, in Oakdale, on Tuesday evening, the 18th inst. The weather was very inclement, and the turn out was not large, but the music was of the highest order. The singers were led by Professor David Cornelius, of Allegheny city. Dr. Kirker was summoned, and had her taken to a hotel and cared for. Here a German gentleman, a resident of San Francisco, made some inquiries and found her in destitute circumstances. He aided her to the amount of twenty dollars, all he could spare.

... Yesterday a half breed Indian, named James Kachese, was arrested in Allegheny, for raising a row in a Western avenue car. When brought before the Mayor, he stated that he belonged on a reservation at Fort Phil Kearny, and had come to the city in search of Mr. Felix R. Brunot, of the Indian Commission. Equalized Taxation.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

Your correspondent "N.," who expresses such great anxiety at his fear the equalization ordinance cannot be perfectly carried out in time, may possess his soul in peace. The millage will, for this year, be levied on the equalized valuation. No amount of blundering on the part of those whose duty it is to operate the Equalization law can by any possibility equal the absolutely frightful blundering, to call it by no worse name, of the system under which the valuations have heretofore been made.

I guess "N." is one of those fortunate gentlemen having a property worth several thousand dollars, whose valuations for taxable purposes have heretofore been at the rate of from one to four or five per cent. of the actual value. He can rest satisfied the present year will play that out, and from this time forth, he will be forced to pay his proper share of taxes. In this latter point lays the rub of his fear. I and others have been paying four and five times more taxes relatively, than those gentlemen who are very much afraid the law cannot be carried out this year. This simply means they desire another year of grace. No, sir! FAIR PLAY.

THE LAST SCENE.

The Meeting at the Alliance Rooms—The Temperance Men all Alone—How the Idea of a Conference Originated—And the Result.

Yesterday afternoon at three o'clock was the time fixed upon for the proposed Conference between the representatives of the liquor and the temperance interests, in reference to our license system. The announcement of the meeting had been pretty generally heralded in all quarters through the medium of the press and considera- down together in this lovely manner would form ble public interest was the result—it being universally conceded that the lion and the lamb lying a most beautiful tableau vivant with which to close the Local Option campaign.

Prompt to the hour a goodly number of gentlemen gathered at the designated rendezvous, but half a glance would have convinced the most careless observer that but one part of the expected performers were in attendance. These all seemed to be of one mind, as was evident from the cheerful unanimity expressed on all countenances, and the simultaneous turning toward the door every time it was opened to admit a new-comer, it being apparent that a stranger was expected each time the door swung on its hinges. As the time passed, however, and none but old acquaintances put in an appearance, expectancy gave way to disappointment, and if the general regret was not expressed in words, it was apparently very sincerely felt all around the circle. Finally, about twenty minutes past three o'clock, after a brief consultation, Mr. James Parke, Jr., arose and remarked, "Gentlemen, I have been requested to state that a number of us are here as citizens, in the interest of the temperance cause, and the enforcement of the laws in reference to our license system. As I understood the case, the gentlemen engaged in the liquor business proposed to unite with us here and consult with us in reference to an enforcement of our license laws. As for myself, I feel that my occupation is about gone in this matter. I am not here as a member of the Alliance Executive Committee, but as a citizen, and I did not notify any of the members of the committee because, I supposed it was a citizens meeting in reference to this subject."

Mr. Park then closed by moving the selection of Mr. Arthur Kirk as Chairman, but as that gentleman said he could not remain, Mr. W. B. Ross was chosen, and the usual formality of selecting the reporters as secretaries gone through with.

The chair then stated the object of the meeting, and announced that any propositions from persons representing the liquor interests, would be cheerfully received.

There was silence for several minutes, which was at length broken by

Rev. Mr. McKeever, who said the liquor men, he had understood, had sent representatives to the meeting of the Alliance on Friday night, proposing this meeting, and that in pursuance thereof they (the temperance men) were ready to hear any propositions.

The chair reported the first announcement, but there was no response.

Rev. Mr. Witherspoon, thought possibly there was a mistake. He desired further information. If any one knew that such a request had been made by the liquor men, it might be well to state the fact, and all about it. He would like to know if there had been a request sent or if some one had been playing upon them.

Mr. Arthur Kirk responded by saying: "The request came through me. As I was passing through the meeting, last Friday night, I met Mr. Potter, one of the firm of Joshua Rhodes & Co., brewers, and he told me to make the announcement. I wanted him to make the statement himself, but he insisted I should make it, and I did so. Afterwards I met Mr. Rhodes and mentioned the matter to him. He seemed to know all about it, and acquiesced in it. That's all I know about it."

This statement of Mr. Kirk was pondered in silence for a few moments, and then Mr. Park said, as they had waited half an hour, and it did not appear that any person representing the liquor interest was present or proved to be in attendance, he moved to adjourn, which was carried, and the assemblage dispersed.

WAR IN YOUNGSTOWN.

Reported Terrible Riot Between the Striking White and Newly Imported Colored Miners—Rumors of a Number Killed and Wounded—The Military on the Scene.

The strike of coal miners at the Mahoning Coal Company's mines, Youngstown, O., which has been in progress for several days, has assumed a very serious aspect. An armed force was sent to the town on last Friday night, and upon going to the mines where the miners had congregated in large numbers and had commenced hostile demonstrations, the latter at once dispersed. On Saturday morning, the miners who had arrived to take the places of the strikers, went to work unmolested. On Saturday evening, however, the miners again attempted to intimidate the workmen, but the guard prevented a collision.

The company concluded to import several hundred colored men, and yesterday an additional number arrived. Conflicting rumors were rife on the streets during the day in regard to affairs among the miners, none of them, however, being authenticated. One report which was generally believed to be correct stated that a slight outbreak had occurred; that several negroes were injured, but that the military promptly quelled the riotious proceedings. Another was that the white miners had pitched into a party of colored men and killed two of them and severely shot several others. While still another stated that a terrible riot was in progress and that the military had fired on the rioters killing four and injuring ten or twelve more, two of them fatally. We can give no authority to the rumors, as our advices thus far (at two o'clock this morning), give no details or particulars. Certain it is, however, that an outbreak has occurred, but whether with as serious result as is reported we cannot state.

THE GREYS.

They Ask Councils for Old City Hall at a Rent of $1,800 Per Year.

The Duquesne Greys Regiment after having seen the magnificent armory of the Fifth Baltimore Regiment, which has been gratuitously provided by the Councils of that city, and the rent of which is paid out of the city treasury, are upon their mettle, and desire to secure an armory or barracks more in keeping with their high national reputation. Their present headquarters are good enough for office rooms, but are entirely unfit for drilling and the proper keeping of accoutrements. The regiment has therefore asked the Councils, through the Market Committee, for the privilege of renting the old City Hall, in the Diamond, at a rental of $1,800 per annum. Inasmuch as the old building has hardly paid for keeping it in repairs, and as the Greys offer to give it free of charge to citizens for use on occasions of a public character, a majority of the Market Committee seem inclined to comply with the request. The Greys promise to make it, if they get it, as fine a military armory as there is in the country. As all take much pride in the "Crack Regiment" of our State, we hope the Councils may deal liberally with them.

SALEM, O.

Some Facts About the Town—Its Appearance to a Stranger—Improvements Being Made.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

SALEM, O., March 20th, 1873.

This town is situated on the P., Ft. W. & C. R. R., sixty-nine miles from Pittsburgh. The railroad and station are on the south side, and at some distance from the principal places of business, residences, stores, &c. The main part of the town is on high ground, but is not very prepossessing to a stranger, especially at this season of the year. Many of the houses are old, and have a dingy appearance. Many of them are in good condition to make kindling wood for a conflagration in a dry time. This misfortune some of the enterprising inhabitants are trying to obviate, by building substantial brick structures, which handsomely adorn the place.

The history of the town dates from 1804, hence some buildings might be expected to show the effects of age. The growth of the place has been slow but sure, and few places of its size have suffered less from financial reverses. The population is now, perhaps, between three and four thousand.

The town has good educational facilities. Its churches are well attended. Industry is practiced here and in the surrounding country in a manner as may be regarded as truly creditable, and the same might be said of the prevalence of morality and sobriety.

Just now an object of some interest in the town is the session of Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Bishop Harris presides. The ministers in attendance undoubtedly feel that Salem people are not lacking in hospitality.

The weather is disagreeable, and the roads very muddy; hence a dreary aspect is presented, but there are times when the appearance of the place is much better. G. D. H.

A TRIUMPHANT RECORD.

In glancing back at the history of proprietary medicines in this country, it becomes at once evident that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the most successful of them all. The record of its triumphs covers a period of about twenty years, and during that time it has probably restored to health and vigor a greater number of debilitated invalids than all other tonics and alteratives combined. The amount of disease and suffering that has been prevented by its extensive use as a preventive medicine is, of course unascertainable, but it is a well-known and undisputed fact that the malaria which generates periodic fevers and many other distressing and dangerous disorders seldom, if ever, produces any injurious effect upon systems that have been fortified in advance by a course of this invaluable vegetable tonic.
